STEREOSCOPIC EMPORIUM.

E. ANTHONY,

308 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

After May 1st, 1860, 501 BROADWAY, two doors from the St. Nicholas Hotel.

The Stereoscope is the most instructive, interesting, amusing, and exciting of modern inventions.

None are too young, old, or weak, nor too intelligent, none too uneducated, to acknowledge its worth.

No home is complete without it, and it must and will penetrate everywhere.

We will view every part of the world, in all the relief, boldness, perspective, and sharpness of detail, as if we were on the spot.

For the purpose of exploring Europe, Asia, Africa, America, in search of the grand and beautiful scenes of their soil are constantly enriching our stock.

We have an immense variety of pictures, Views of the principal cities of the world, Pictures of Nature, France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Spain, the Rhine, Versailles, St. Cloud, Fontainebleau, Brussels, Antwerp, Paris, London, New York, Land, China, India, Crystal Palace, also Groups of Pictures, portraits, miniatures, &amp;c. &amp;c. &amp;c.

An especially extensive collection of illuminated Interiors of Palaces, Churches, and other buildings, which are selected to these illuminated views is most remarkable.

Every GENTLEMAN of wealth and taste, who loves to view every part of the world, in all its exactitude, on plates, with a revolving stereoscope, showing 12, 20, or 100 scenes. Nothing can be more instructive, interesting, and amusing than this.

A friend of the pictureque can the beautiful, the grand, the sublime, the heroic, the dramatic, and the picturesque with pleasure.

They are taken in the forth part of a second, and everything no sooner seen than forgotten. They are clear, distinct, and distinct, as it had been perfectly at rest.

This gives an additional value to the beauty of the pictureque, and the grandeur of the sublime.

The process is a discovery of our own, and being unknown in Europe, we receive from London and Paris, the best and latest specimens of Views of American life and scenery.

We have a large collection of established stereoscopes. Illustrations of the scenes of the HEROES OF FRANCE. MARTINS, in which many hearts beat in admiration. The particulars of this will be found in our catalogues.

OUR CATALOGUE of pictures and prints will be forwarded to all friends of the pictureque, and to our agents.

Particulars of the cost of sending pictures to us, and to our agents, with every necessary information, will be given by letter.

Views of a (without instrument) can be sent by mail.

Parties who wish to be advised of everything really valuable in the line that comes out, may send us their names, and we will keep them posted at our expense.

MOS. of leisure and photographers a most fascinating pastime, and to our agents, with every necessary information, will be given by letter.

PHOTOGRAPHERS.—First class stereoscopic Negatives will be given by letter.
